BROCKTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Brockton Symphony Orchestra is considered one of the finest orchestras in the Greater Boston area. Many have called it one of Brockton's greatest treasures. Conceived 64 years ago by fellow musicians and friends, the mission of the orchestra is to bring professional-level symphonic music to our community, to teach and inspire children about music, and to encourage the participation of local musicians and students.

The Symphony has succeeded, not only in maintaining a high level of performance, but also in serving as a showcase for some of the world's greatest upcoming and established talent.

Our 64th season is led by the talented James M. Orent, BrSO Music Director. Beginning his fifth year with the Symphony, the exciting repertoire Maestro Orent has selected will entertain and inspire all generations of music lovers.

Please join us!
